

NATIONAL CENTER ON DEAF-BLINDNESS

Media Permission Form

The National Center on Deaf-Blindness (NCDB) is a national technical assistance and dissemination center for children and youth who are deaf-blind, funded by the U.S. Department of Education's Office of Special Education Programs. In partnership with state deaf-blind projects, NCDB provides technical assistance and shares information about deaf-blindness throughout the United States.

NCDB requests your permission to use videos/photos/audio recordings of you or your child as part of our online teaching and outreach activities and for similar activities by our partner organizations. The purpose of these efforts is to improve the skills and knowledge of service providers and families. Examples of products and services in which videos/photos/audio recordings may be used include websites, conference presentations, training modules, and publications (electronic/print).
