SESSION DESCRIPTION

Participants will learn about what guides our ethical decision making. They will review tools and resources that serve as the backbone of our practice. Following this review, the group will work through a guided analysis of ethical decision making. This group will provide a safe platform for interpreters to ask about dilemmas that come up in the classroom.

Educational Objectives: By the end of this session, participants will be able to

1. Identify what guides an educational interpreter's decision making;
2. Describe the tools/resources used by educational interpreters to guide ethical practice;
3. Develop strategies to work through ethical dilemmas;
4. Engage in meaningful dialogue to understand the impact of decisions.
