SESSION DESCRIPTION

The Interpreter as a Member of the IEP Team

Elizabeth Ann Monn

“I’m just the interpreter.” Well, in educational interpreting, no you’re not. This workshop will provide tips and strategies for becoming an equal member of the IEP team: what to expect, how to prepare, and areas to cover at the IEP meeting; strategies for collaboration with a variety of team members, and provide tools to become an effective member of the team.

Having completed this workshop, participants will be able to:

- Identify the major components of the IEP
- Summarize information on what to expect at an IEP meeting
- List members of the IEP team and describe a potential area for collaboration
- Create a tool kit of resources

PRESENTER BIOGRAPHY

Elizabeth Ann Monn, Ph.D., CI/CT, NAD V

Beth Ann has been an itinerant teacher of the deaf/hard of hearing for the past 18 years, currently in Carroll County Public Schools in Maryland. She has worked as an educational interpreter and was the grant consultant for the MSDE Educational Interpreters Project for 14 years. She earned her BA degree from Allentown College (now DeSales University), her MS and MEd degrees from Western Maryland College (now McDaniel College) and her Ph.D. from Gallaudet College (now Gallaudet University). Beth Ann is the EIPA Local Test Administrator in Maryland and is the founder/list owner of the mdk12terps resource group. She holds the RID CI/CT and NAD V certifications, an EIPA 4.0, and was an adjunct instructor at McDaniel College. A member of the Pennsylvania Supreme Court Language Access Advisory Board, Beth Ann has a history of attending colleges that shortly thereafter change their names.
